

The York Early Years Hub

The York Early Years Hub began operating in March 2014. It is intended to be a hub of services for families with children aged 0-5 years in York. The hub operates out of the old York Bowling Club on Forrest Rd York (entry opposite the York District High School bus pick up/drop off zone). Currently the hub accommodates the following services:

York Family Playgroup

A learning-through-play opportunity for children aged 0-5 years and their families.

Fridays 9-11am

President: Tanya Marwick 0417940772

York Toy Library

A library with a vast array of toys to borrow to aid children in learning-through-play.

Fortnightly Tuesdays 9-10am & Saturdays 9.30-11am.

President: Emma Draper 0407981451

Noognar Playgroup

A learning-through-play opportunity for Aboriginal families in York with children aged 0-5 years.

Tuesdays 10am-12pm.

Co-ordinator: Lois Ralph 0466056204

York Mother's Group

A support and information session for parents with children aged 0-2 years.

Time & dates to be advised.

Child Health Nurse: Tracy Ashworth (York Hospital) 9641 0200

Australian Breastfeeding Association

A support and information session for breast-feeding mothers.

Time & dates to be advised.

Contact: Natasha James gjames@harboursat.com.au

For general hub enquiries and bookings contact Meg Boyle 0421420652.

