BIGNELL, Sydney

Syd Bignell has built strong relationships within the Central Wheatbelt lifestyle and previously worked hard in the Chidlow community and the Mundaring Shire departing as the President of the Chidlow Progress Association. An emergency management professional, Syd is concerned about community readiness and resilience. A strong connection to community will support our resilience in our current challenges and allow us to be stronger into the future. Syd will continue standing for support of local businesses small and large, including our rural sector as prime supports and as employers and leaders in our communities. Syd supports local businesses to be competitive and volunteer friendly and so reap the benefits for all locals and visitors. Syd works in mental health, aged and disability care.
