David Sparrow for Council

A York resident since 1995, electrician by trade, owner builder of own home in York, and musician and entertainer for properly paid hire, David is a semi-retired ICT professional whose career of many decades has included providing a broad range of ICT services to Local, State, and Federal Government departments thereby rendering him considerably familiar with the administrative operations and obligations of the same. David and his wife Seanne are volunteers for the 'Voice of the Avon' 101.3fm community radio station, are passionate about York, positively promote being Accountable, Reflective, Resourceful, and Responsible, and are keen for our adopted hometown, Shire, and Council, to continue to be likewise. If elected to represent and serve you on York Council, David is both keen and looking forward to working with fellow Councillors to help bring about improved oversight and communication transparency for the ongoing benefit and growth of our community.
