

Welcome to your all new York Business & Community Directory. Produced for you by The York Business Association Inc.

We hope you enjoy the new format, and the additional features designed to make the directory easier to navigate, clearer, informative, interesting, and, most importantly, up to date.

We want this book to be of major benefit both to existing residents and New comers alike by showcasing all that is available to everyone in this fine town.

This has been a mammoth task, this first year 'Under new management' and it has involved many hours of research, emails, telephone calls and face to face meetings; and there is still going to be a good chance it is not quite perfect!

But we think you will agree, it is a big improvement on what has been offered before and we can build on this strong start, with your help, in future editions.

The YBA is all about working with and supporting our members through forums, networking, marketing, events and generally having a rewarding and, dare I say, good time.

This book is another opportunity to do this, not only for our members, but for all York businesses, whatever size, however new and in whatever line of work.

An entry in this book is an investment in the town of York and any profit made by the YBA will be used to improve and promote York, for everyone's benefit, in whatever way we can.

Please support the advertisers in this Directory and please promote York far and wide among your family, friends, workmates and acquaintances so we all enjoy what York has to offer both now and in the future. Use the book to do this and, if it means parting with your copy, so be it, we have more!

Enjoy the directory, browse all the content, and, if you feel inclined, let me know what you think. Happy to hear from you.

Karen Thomas
President YBA – yorkbusassoc@gmail.com.

A LOCAL INDUSTRY.

A comparatively new industry in York is Mr. Mosley's aerated water factory, on the Northam road. Mr. Mosley started operations in York a few months ago, and at first business was very dull with him, but as the quality of his cordials became known his output increased to such an extent that now he has hard work to keep pace with the demand. The machinery in use is a Hayward Tyler's aerating machine (capable of fully satisfying all requirements), a Barnes and Foster's bottling rack, and an up-to-date corking machine. All the water for the manufacture of the cordials is obtained from an underground tank on the premises, in which there is an unlimited supply. Mr. Mosley intends adding to his plant to enable him to carry on business on a more extensive scale, and with this object in view he proposes to visit the Eastern colonies shortly in order to procure the necessary appliances.

Do you remember the first brewery in York?—the first attempt to manufacture the "nectar of the gods." It was made by a gentleman named Ullrich, who for some years was identified with my old friend W. Mumme, one of the original owners of the Swan brewery in Perth, and, who I am pleased to hear is still with us. Ullrich selected for the site of his operations an allotment on the east bank of the Avon, midway between the town and Richard Gallop's Mile-Pool garden, which subsequently came into the possession of Mr. W. T. Craig. Many and many a time it was said of Ullrich, as before applied by poet Bill Shakespeare:—
"My blessing on your head, Ullrich,

You brew good beer."
But somehow or other the venture "petered out." Probably the local palate had not cultivated an appreciation for the locally-manufactured "hops." With between nearly forty years separating then and now, I must admit that far less enjoyable beverage has come to us in different guise. In flavor it was not far removed from the famous "Pilsener" lager. The quality of the water which had necessarily to be employed may have been responsible for any little shortcomings it possessed.

YORK: HOW TO HELP IT.

Talk about it.
Write about it.
Buy all you can in it.
Money sent out of the district goes away to stay.
Remember that by assisting local tradesmen you help the place along.
Purchase and assist your local paper. By so doing you further the best interests of the district.
Advertise freely and constantly. A good ad. in the local paper (your paper) scores well all the time.
Treat strangers with the utmost courtesy and hospitality, so they may take away good impressions of the district.

Keep the money in the place. Sell all you can and buy all you can at home.

The men who have invested in stores, workshops and other business places are building up the district, and they should be encouraged.

Remember that in giving the local newspaper office the preference of your printing orders you are helping in the advancement of the district as the newspaper is thereby helped. The local newspaper does you many a good turn, and charges nothing for the service.

WHIRLWIND IN YORK.

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE DONE.

York, Wednesday.

A violent whirlwind passed over York yesterday, carrying away the roof of Mr. Craig's Aerated Water Factory besides doing a lot of damage to other premises in the town.

The old established brickyard known as Duckham's is offered for sale, and with the present great demand for building material should not long go a-begging. When one comes to consider that bricks are now selling in Perth at an even £4 per thousand and that a big profit can be made by importing the article from Melbourne, I am lost in amazement at the folly or stupidity of our local minded men who allow fortune to knock unheeded at their doors. Why not throw off the apineness which has so long clogged the advance of the colony. Take my word for it we are importing too much, too much of many articles which with the expenditure of well-directed energy we could as we should produce ourselves. No doubt the import duties swell considerably

Men's Suits

The Pride of your Wardrobe

Should be a "HARRIS SUIT" not only on account of the quality of material used, but the price at which they are offered. A pure INDIGO SERGE, all wool, from £4 4-0, and TWEEDS from £3 15-0

York.

The following protest against the notorious memorial was published in last Friday's Perth Gazette—

WE, the undersigned residents in the York District, beg to record our most earnest protest against the manner in which a few self-elected individuals have taken upon themselves in the memorial published in the W. A. Times, of the 31st ult., to express such decided opinions on the subject of the cessation of transportation to this colony, as we feel greatly indignant that any section of the community should take such a precipitate step without first ascertaining the feelings of the different districts on a question of such importance to the most vital interests of the colony.

Huge federal electoral changes under the new seat of Bullwinkel

By Peter W Lewis. The ECHO

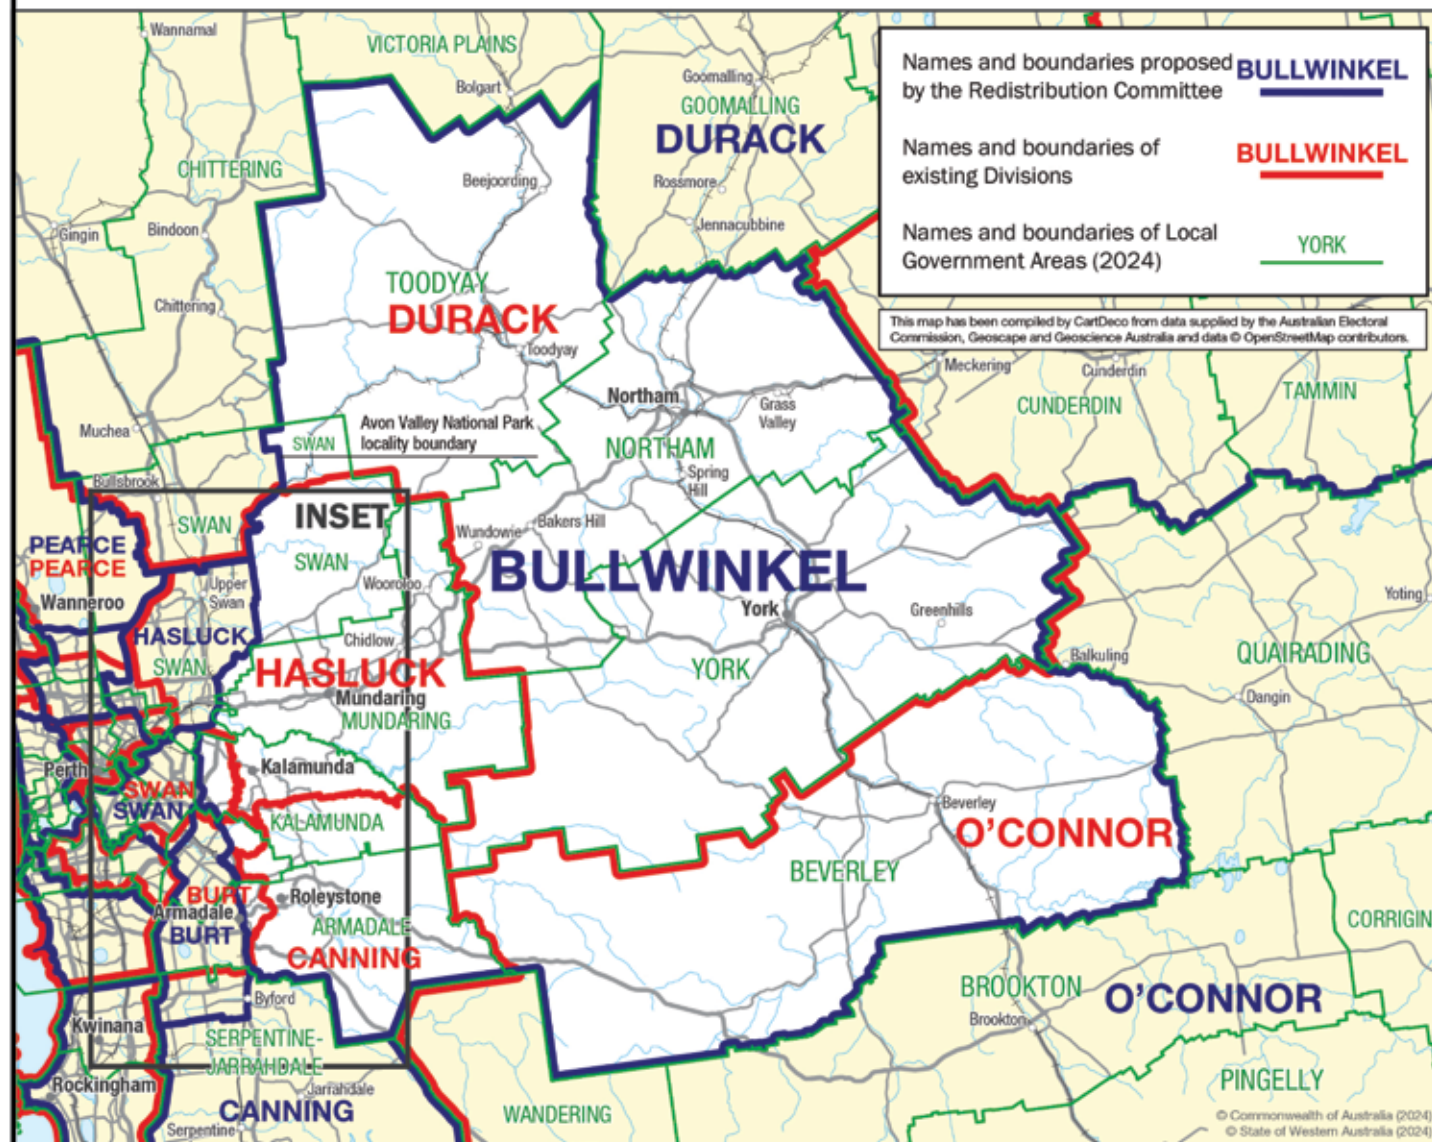

York residents will be voting in the newly created seat of Bullwinkel soon under a proposal from the Redistribution Committee for Western Australia.

Western Australian redistribution is required to enable an increase from 15 to 16 federal electoral divisions and the changes will affect rural voters in York, Northam, Beverley and Toodyay, the majority of Mundaring and Kalamunda and parts of Swan, Gosnells and Armadale.

Under the proposal 15.57 per cent of all WA electors will move into different electoral divisions.

The location of the new proposed division of Bullwinkel has a range of knock-on changes for the proposed boundaries of the divisions of Hasluck, Swan, Durak, Canning, Burt and O'Connor.

"Under the proposal, the boundaries of all of Western Australia's existing electoral divisions would change and the additional Division of Bullwinkel would be created," committee chair and Electoral Commissioner, Tom Rogers said.

"Ongoing population growth in parts of Western Australia has led the redistribution committee to propose a number of substantial changes to the state's electoral division boundaries."

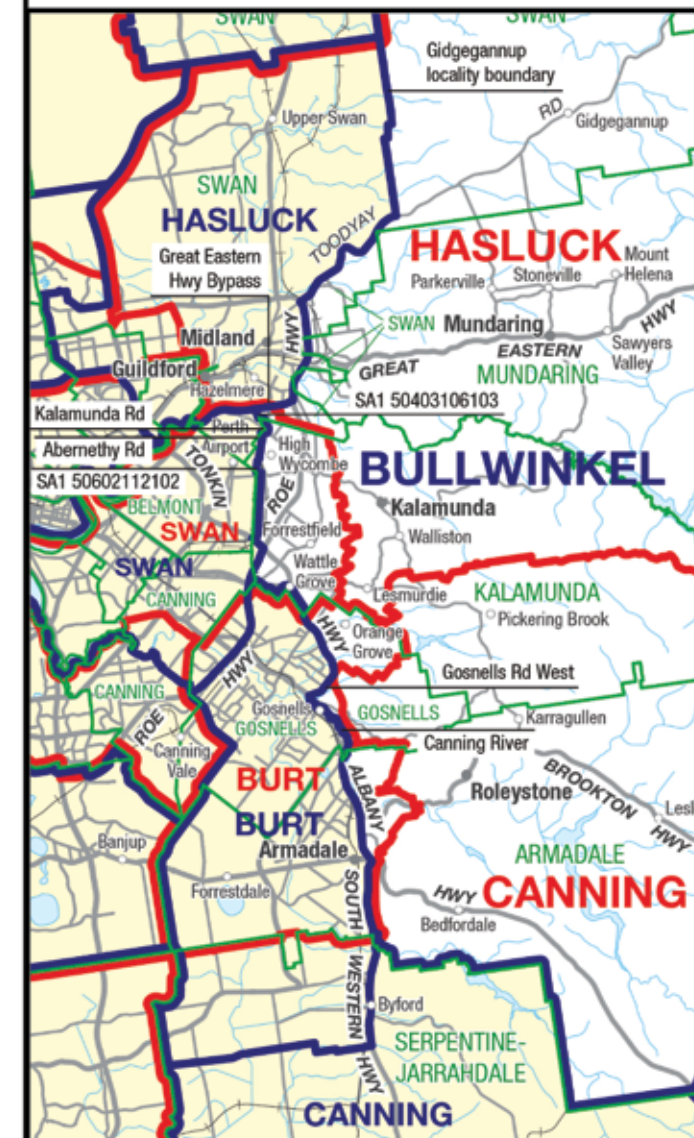

The proposed division of Bullwinkel is named in honour of Lieutenant Colonel Vivian Bullwinkel AO MBE (1915–2000).

After surviving the sinking of the SS Vyner Brooke following the evacuation of Singapore, Bullwinkel was the sole survivor of the 1942 Bangka Island massacre and a prisoner of war for three and a half years.

Bullwinkel retired from the Army in 1947 and became director of nursing at Melbourne's Fairfield Hospital, devoting much of her life to moving Australian nursing education from hospitals to universities, and the recognition of military personnel, especially nurses, and the victims of war crimes.

In 1992 she returned to Bangka Island to unveil a shrine to the nurses who had not survived the war, and has worked to highlight the treatment of prisoners of war by Japanese soldiers during World War II.

The naming of an electoral division after her recognises her dedication to honouring victims of war crimes and her service to nursing and the community, in both her civilian and military service. This electoral division name also honours the contribution of military medical personnel and recognises those who were prisoners of war.

The new electoral division has been named after nurse Vivian Bullwinkel.

GOT 15 MINUTES TO BURN?

15 MINUTES IS ALL IT TAKES TO MAKE A PLAN.
OR LOSE IT ALL.

Scan the QR code to start your bushfire plan.

Communities across the State need a bushfire plan.

More than 93 per cent of Western Australia is bushfire prone yet only 1.95 per cent of households have a recorded bushfire plan.

We know bushfires can start at any time, making it so important for everyone to be prepared.

Creating a bushfire plan is the best way to keep you and your household safe. And it takes just 15 minutes to do. Don't leave it too late.

Bushfire Plan

Go to mybushfireplan.wa.gov.au or download the My Bushfire Plan app, which you can access anytime, even without an internet connection.

- You need to think about escape options, where to shelter if you can't safely leave, what you need to take with you and having important belongings in an easy to find place.
- You also need to prepare an emergency kit with a battery-operated radio so you can stay informed if you lose phone reception.
- Make sure the whole household knows where to find the plan and their roles. Sit down with family members and make the crucial safety decisions now.
- Remember a bushfire can block your escape route in just 15 minutes, the same time it takes to make your bushfire plan.

For the most accurate and reliable information during a bushfire - and other emergencies - go to...

www.emergencywa.wa.gov.au

or listen to ABC local radio.

Keep your mobile phone charged and with you as automatic warnings may be broadcast within the emergency area.
