York is my home of five years. In that time I have built my house and come to know many local people. I am an advocate, helping the over 65's access services necessary for their retired lifestyles. My past experience in the legal industry continues to provide good understanding of how peoples needs can be met, and I am confident of my ability to represent the residents of York. I am approachable, dedicated to developing facilities for a Seniors Citizen Centre, and willing to engage across all levels of the community. If you elect me to Council I will actively represent you.
